

If your DRP Tokens are already in Mist or Metamask, please skip to page 4 - How to Vote

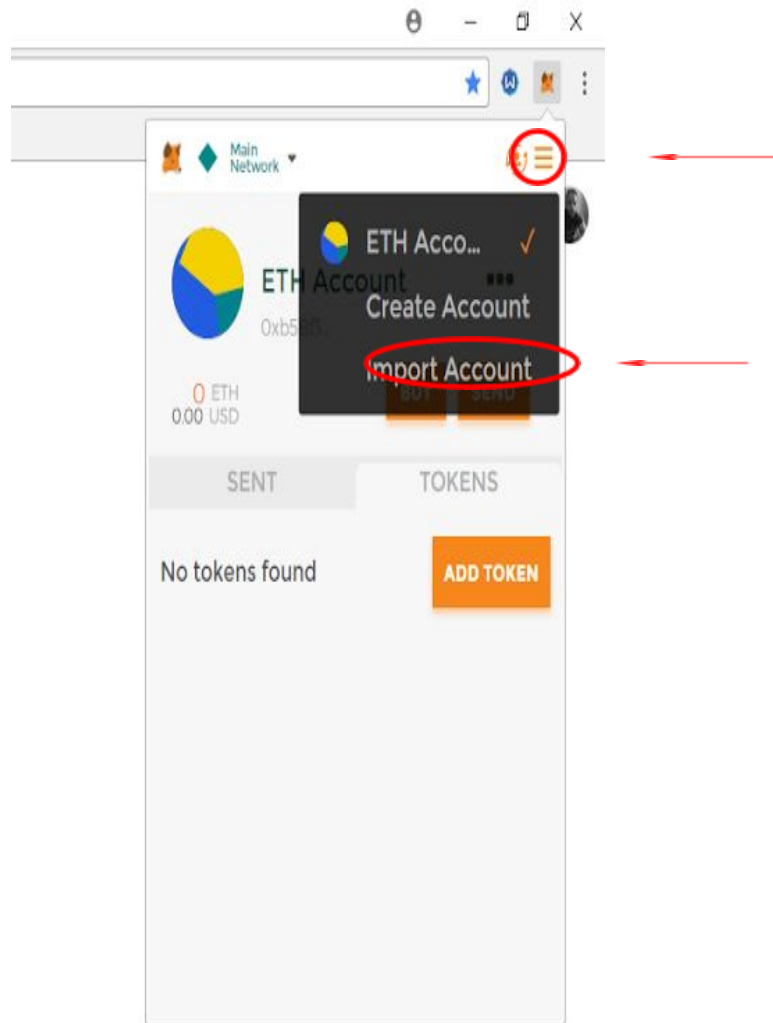

To import your Private Keys into Metamask, follow the directions below:

Open the MetaMask widget within the Chrome Browser – If you do not have the Metamask extension, please go to: <https://metamask.io>

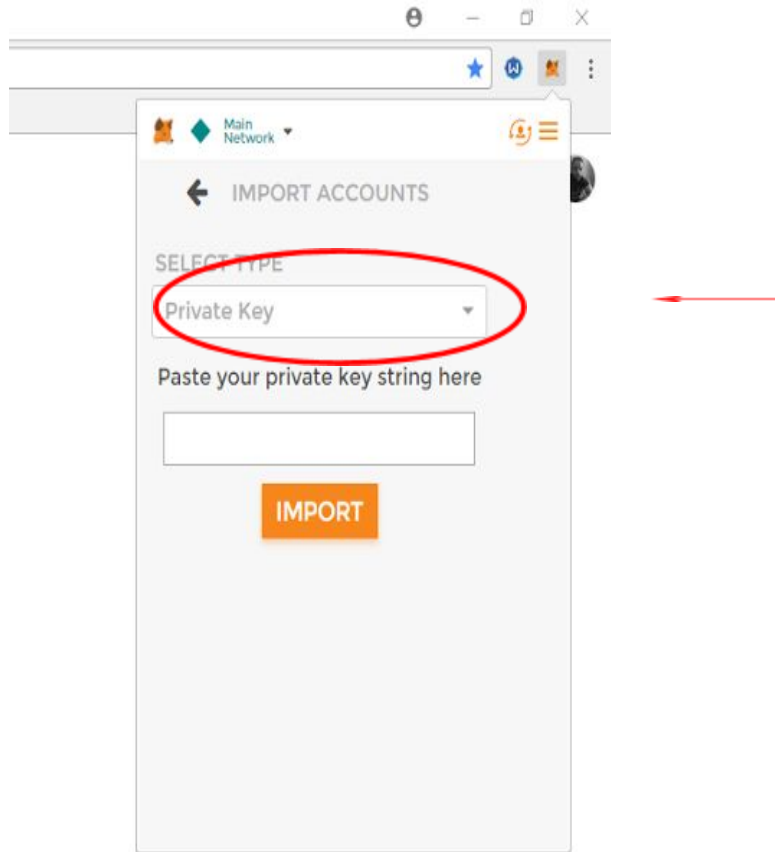

Open Metamask by clicking the extension indicated by the small fox in the upper right-hand corner of Chrome.

Once opened, proceed to the account menu option, indicated by a 'profile' rounded by arrows. Drop the menu down and select Import Account.

Once within the drop down, you will see a box where you can import your Private Keys from any other wallet that you have access to your private keys. After placing your Private Key within the text box, select “IMPORT”. You will import your private keys and name the new account accordingly.

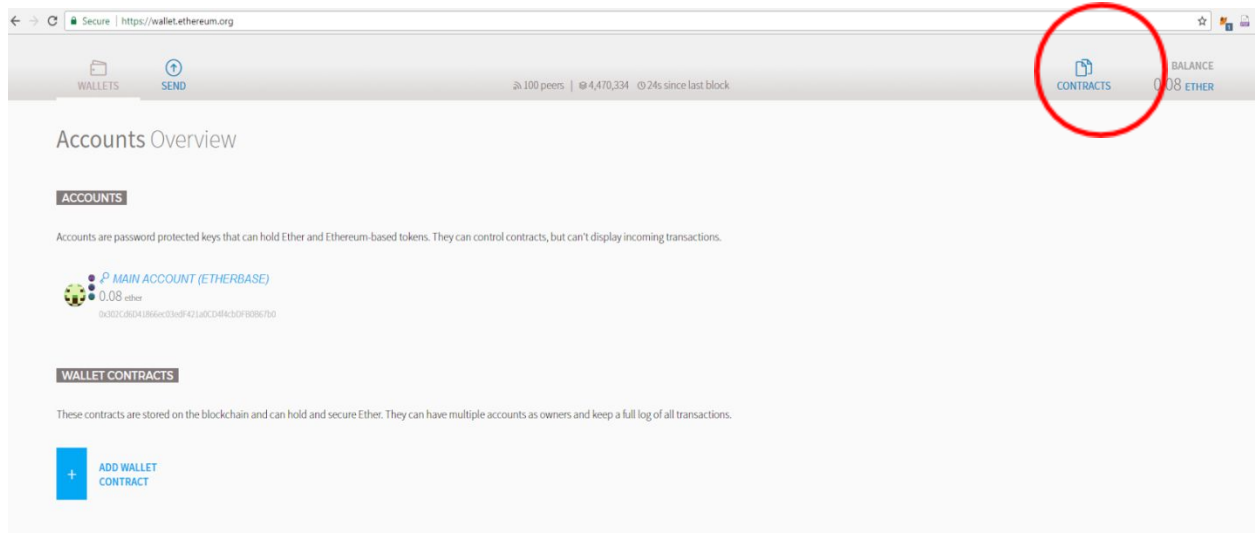

How to Vote

Now that you have moved your private keys to your Metamask and you've named an account to identify those keys you must navigate to Wallet.Ethereum.org using the Chrome browser that your Metamask is currently opened within.

* If Metamask is unlocked, you must now enter your password and log in.

Within Wallet.Ethereum.org you will:

Select CONTRACTS on the top right

Select WATCH CONTRACT

Insert this contract address where it asks for contract address on wallet.ethereum.org:
